How to get to Gdynia

Gdynia is part of a 3-City complex (Gdańsk + Sopot + Gdynia) in the Pomeranian Region. Gdańsk is a city with a long history and a beautiful old town. Sopot is a famous seaside resort. Gdynia is a relatively young city (born out of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919) with a sea port.

PLANE

There is only one airport covering the 3-city complex: Gdańsk Lech Walesa airport (in Gdańsk Rębiechowo).

To get to Gdynia from the airport you can take a taxi (cost approx. 120-140 PLN; time: 30 min).

There is also a good and cheap bus connection between the airport and Gdańsk Wrzeszcz; Gdańsk Główny or Gdynia Główna. Direct connection to Gdynia Główna - bus line 4A (ticket price 4 PLN; time: 45 min).

Recently, a high speed train has been created and runs from the airport to Gdynia (cost 3-6 PLN; time 20 min). On the timetable Gdansk Lech Walesa airport is indicated as "the Gdansk Airport."/„Gdańsk Port Lotniczy”.

FERRY

There is a direct ferry connection to Gdynia from Helsinki or Karlskrona.

TRAIN

Gdynia and Gdańsk are also important railway stations for international trains (for example from Berlin, Vienna or Kaliningrad).

BUS

There is also an international bus connection from many European cities to Gdańsk or Gdynia.

3-CITY TRAIN

The easiest, the fastest and the cheapest way of travelling between the 3-city complex is the Urban Fast Train (SKM). You can buy a ticket in the ticket office, newsstand or directly from the ticket machine that is on (or nearby) every SKM platform. Please be aware that the tickets bought in the ticket office or newsstand need to be validated in the ticket puncher that is on (or nearby) every SKM platform BEFORE You enter the SKM train. Tickets bought from the ticket machine (available language versions on the screen: English, German, Polish) are already validated. The tickets are validated only for the next SKM train. The price for the ticket from Gdynia Główna
