Dear Tycjan Wodzinowski,

I wish to congratulate you on your appointment as Chair of the Working Group on Oceanic Hydrography (WGOH) for three years from 1 January 2021, and thank you for accepting this responsibility.

We in the ICES Secretariat are here to assist you in your new duties addressing the Terms of Reference of your Expert Group.

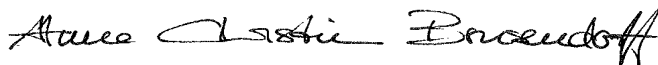

Your contact points at the Secretariat designated to support you and 'shadow' your Expert Group are Hjalte Parner as Professional Officer (email: Hjalte.Parner@ices.dk), and Maria Lifentseva as Supporting Officer (email: Maria.Lifentseva@ices.dk), should you need any advice.

The Guidelines for ICES groups describe the working practices and membership of all groups contributing to the ICES community. The intention is for this document to contain all the essential information needed by those chairing and participating in these groups. An introductory overview to the Guidelines can be found in the Power Point Presentation under this link. Please keep the Guidelines close to hand during your work and, if any questions arise that are not covered, please contact your Supporting Officer, who will try to assist.

You can see the full set of Resolutions and schedule of ICES meetings on our website.

Best wishes in your new position.

Yours sincerely,

Anne Christine Brusendorff
General Secretary
